ANXIOUS TO RECOVER OLD FAMILY FURNITURE

I am very anxious to recover two pieces of old family furniture. One, a mahogany bedstead with plain round post, which was sold at the sale of my father's, Major Geo. W. Williams, at the close of the war, in 1864. The other is an old fashioned long mahogany sideboard, this piece was purchased by the sisters who formerly run the Convent in this city and sold by them when they left the city. Any information in regard to same will be rewarded.
